This colour palette may be used in any combination to customise your chosen design, however please check our website carefully as not all designs can be customised and customised elements change from design to design. Please be aware that colours may differ on screen or when printed. For a more accurate colour representation please order a sample which will be provided with colour palettes print on our four different types of card stock.
We aim to represent colours featured on our website and in digital PDF form as accurately as possible, however colour as viewed on screen can differ from printed colour. If you have any special colour requirements or queries please email us at hello@inkandcurls.co.uk
